Welcome to Rochester Center for Sexual Wellness (RCSW)! I hope that we can build a lasting, trusting relationship in which you can accomplish the goals you set. This letter will explain a few things about our work, your rights, and responsibilities, as well as mine.

I have a New York State permit to practice as a Marriage and Family Therapist, and I am training to become both a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and a Certified Sex Therapist under the supervision of Daniel Rosen, LCSW-R, CST, CST-S. I follow the Code of Ethics set forth by the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT) and NY State Board of Behavioral Health. I practice under the guidelines set forth by the American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors, and Therapists (AASECT). You can request a copy of those ethics at any time. It is important for you to know that as a client you have certain rights, and those rights will be reviewed with you.

It is also important to know that the work you complete at RCSW is confidential with the exceptions indicated by you in a signed Consent for Treatment and Authorization for Release of Health Information. If you enter therapy with your partner(s), each member participating in therapy must consent to a release of information. In accordance with New York state regulation and professional ethics, specific circumstances may require me to break confidentiality and report information obtained as a result of the therapy process. Those circumstances may include 1) therapist believes a client may be a danger to self or others 2) therapist believes a child, elderly or disabled person may be subject to abuse or neglect 3) court order exists that information regarding therapy must be provided.

Entering the therapy process may look different to everyone. You should understand there can be risks associated with therapy which can be discussed during your initial appointment.

I do not participate in insurance. If you would like to submit a statement to your insurance company for out-of-network reimbursement, please request a statement of services at the end of each visit. The fee for services is $120 per visit (based on a 50 minute visit) and is due at time of service.

If you should choose to leave therapy, it is best if we discuss the termination of therapy at a regular therapy session. If there is no session activity or phone contact for a period of 8 weeks, your file will automatically be closed. In most circumstances, your file can be re-opened upon completion of a new intake and payment of any balance due.

At RCSW we strive for the best standard of care, therefore, if you have a problem or question and need to reach me directly, please contact me at 585-865-3584, ext 13 and I will return your call as soon as possible. If you have a true life threatening emergency, you may call 911 or go to your nearest emergency room, or call Lifeline at 585-275-5151, or the National Suicide & Crisis Lifeline at 988.

I look forward to working with you, and I am happy to discuss any questions you may have regarding your care.

Warmly,
Nancy Berg, LPMF
